

WINDOW OPENING CONTROL DEVICE KIT

IMPORTANT: This package contains window opening control device parts. These devices must be installed following the enclosed instructions, and be engaged to help protect against accidental falls from windows. Failure to do so may result in fall/injury. This window opening control device was designed to help protect against accidental falls by children 5 years old and younger. This window opening control device is not a substitute for the supervision of young children.

Part No.100472

Issue 2

Made in China

Designed, manufactured and tested to ASTM F2090-08-10-17